Exhibit B to Registration Statement*Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements, or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic Exhibit B form at <https://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the Registration Unit's webpage: <https://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public in print and online at: <https://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .33 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

SUBCONTRACTOR AGREEMENT

This Subcontractor Agreement (the "Agreement") is made by and between Mercury International UK Limited ("Company") and Mercury Public Affairs, LLC ("Subcontractor"). Company and Subcontractor may each be referred to as a "Party", or together, as the "Parties". The Parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Retention.

(a) Relation to Prime Agreement. The Parties acknowledge that Company has entered into this Agreement with Subcontractor in order to assist with services related to a prime agreement (the "Prime Agreement") between Company and a certain client of Company ("Client").

(b) Services. Company hereby retains Subcontractor to provide the services and/or goods described in Schedule 1 hereto.

(c) Payment. In consideration for services and/or goods rendered, Company shall pay Subcontractor the amount as listed in Schedule 1 for fees and/or out-of-pocket expenses and/or goods purchased, whichever may be applicable, upon receipt of payment from Client for Company's invoices, which include Subcontractor's invoiced charges. No payment will be made to Subcontractor until Company is in receipt of payment from Client for the services covered.

(d) Billing. Subcontractor shall bill Company monthly, prorated over the Term, for any applicable services and/or out-of-pocket expenses and/or goods purchased in accordance with Schedule 1. Subcontractor's address and contact person are listed in Section 10(a) below.

(e) Disputes. Company shall advise Subcontractor of any dispute regarding an invoice within 45 days of receipt.

(f) Ownership of Materials. All materials produced at Company's direction or expense shall be the property of Company.

2. Termination. Either Party may terminate this Agreement at any time with or without cause by giving thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the other Party. During the 30-day notice period, Subcontractor and Company shall continue to be bound by the terms of this Agreement, Subcontractor shall continue to provide Company with the services and/or goods specified in this Agreement, and Subcontractor shall be paid in full for all services it performs during such 30-day period.

3. Confidentiality. All information and data, in any form or format, provided by Company to Subcontractor is conclusively deemed to be Confidential Information. Confidential Information will be kept confidential and in the strictest confidence by Subcontractor and its representatives in a commercially reasonable manner, and at least consistent with the same standards and care used by Subcontractor to protect its own confidential information. Subcontractor shall not disclose such information without Company's written permission. Subcontractor may, however, disclose such information to its employees, counsel, and other professional advisors if disclosure is required in connection with Subcontractor's provision of services hereunder, and if said individuals are informed by Subcontractor and made aware of the nature of the Confidential Information and the restrictions on its use. Subcontractor may also disclose confidential information to the extent required by external legal demand through applicable law or judicial or administrative order with prompt and reasonable prior notification thereof to Company. Subcontractor shall not disclose the fact that it is working with Company, or the existence or terms of this Agreement, to any third party, without the written consent of Company.

4. Indemnification; Insurance.

(a) Indemnification by Subcontractor. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Subcontractor shall, at its own expense, indemnify, defend (with counsel reasonably satisfactory to Company), and hold harmless Company and its officers, directors, employees, assigns and agents against any and all claims, liabilities, damages or costs, expenses including but not limited to attorneys' fees and costs, and against any demands, settlements, or judgments whatsoever (collectively, the "Claims") whether they arise before, during or after the performance of services by Subcontractor under this Agreement which arise directly or indirectly from or in connection with, or which are caused, occasioned or contributed to, in whole or in part, or claimed to be caused, occasioned, or contributed to, in whole or in part, through any act, omission, fault or negligence whether active or passive of Subcontractor or anyone acting under its direction, control, or on its behalf or for which it is legally responsible, even if the loss was partially caused by the negligence of Company, unless the claim was occasioned by the sole and exclusive negligence of Company.

(b) Notice. Upon Company's obtaining notice of any actual or possible Claims for which it may be entitled to indemnification, it shall give prompt written notice of the Claim to the Subcontractor. Failure to give such notice by the informed Party shall not constitute a waiver of such Party's right to be indemnified as provided herein.

(c) Insurance. Subcontractor shall maintain, at its sole expense during the Term of the Agreement, workers' compensation insurance as required by law, as well as general liability coverage, sufficient to meet Subcontractor's obligations under this Agreement. It is agreed that the limits of such insurance shall not be deemed to be the limits of Subcontractor's potential liability under this Agreement. Subcontractor may, from time to time, be required to provide additional insurance as deemed necessary by Company.

5. Waiver. The failure of either Party to require the strict performance of any provisions of this Agreement in any one or more instances, or to exercise its rights hereunder or at law or equity, shall not constitute a waiver or relinquishment of any such provisions or rights, and such provisions and rights shall continue in full force and effect.

6. Inspection. Company may inspect, at the appropriate Subcontractor office, all correspondence, Agreements, books, accounts, and other materials prepared or held by Subcontractor that are directly related to its performance of this Agreement. Inspections may be made during Subcontractor's normal business hours on 3 business days' prior written notice to Subcontractor.

7. Relationship of the Parties. Subcontractor's performance of services under this Agreement shall be undertaken in the capacity of an independent contractor. This Agreement shall not be deemed to create a joint venture, partnership or principal-agent, employer-employee or similar relationship between Company and Subcontractor. Subcontractor shall be solely responsible for obtaining and paying for all insurance coverage (health and workers' compensation) and local, state or federal employment related taxes required by law. Subcontractor is not, and will not claim to be, an employee, joint employee, or agent of Company. No employment agreement between Subcontractor and Company is created by this Agreement or by Subcontractor's provision of services to Company. Subcontractor shall comply with all applicable local, state or federal laws and regulations.

8. Third-Party Agreements. Work assigned to Subcontractor by Company will be completed by Subcontractor. Subcontractor has no authority to enter into third-party agreements on behalf of Company.

9. Survival. The provisions and obligations hereunder shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

10. Miscellaneous.
